Communications/Yearbook/ Newsletters/Website/Publicity – Cheryl Keifer

Website updates are in progress in the Scholarship/Grants Tab and the History Tab. Check it out! www.gammagamma75.org. Also, we are working on adding pictures to our website that support the seven purposes of DKG. Stay tuned!

Educational Excellence –Projects/Personal Growth & Services/Professional Affairs/Scholarships Sandy Cook. Sandy reported that applications for our Recruitment Grant will be sent out to the high schools on March 1. Usually, we get 20 applications, but last year we only got 2 applications. We need additional ideas for advertising our recruitment grant. Please also continue to promote our scholarships to students you know, using the “word of mouth” method.

John Fussell has stated that he will fund another scholarship for this year.

Special Projects/International Projects/Literacy/Legislation- Kris Beaudette. Kris reported on the Legislative Seminar that was held in Springfield in November. It was very well done and she recommends it to our members for future reference. The seminar is held annually.

Please continue to stay informed about government issues and the legislative process. Also, please remember to contact your congressmen and senators on issues that are important to you. They need our input and involvement.

We are asking all members to submit names of candidates for our annual literacy award, to be presented at our annual Spring Celebration in May. Please submit these names to Kris Beaudette or Gerie Kay.

The Special Projects Committee is discussing our contribution to the Lambda State convention Chapter Bazaar. We are discussing preparing and selling spiced nuts, in memory of Mary Guthrie's famous spiced nuts which she often brought to our annual auction.

Announcements

Book Club read for February-A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman-meeting Tuesday February 21st at Pilot Petes. Interested? Contact Mary Wrobel or hostess, Rose Karner.

The Planning committee for the Spring Celebration-50th Anniversary will meet at 9:30am on March 10th at Panera on Schaumburg Road near Barrington Road. Please respond to Gerie.

At our March meeting, we have 2 items to auction as an extension of our December auction. We will also have a raffle of 2 tickets to a wine tasting.

Program

July Briggs presented about the organization called “Phil’s Friends.” Judy described the mission of the organization and its various activities that provide support and hope to those affected by cancer. We all then participated in a hands-on activity typically done at their center, which was to hand-color cards or boxes used for care packages. Many thanks go out to Judy for her excellent and informative presentation. For more information, please contact Judy or see www.philsfriends.org.

Respectfully submitted,

Kris Beaudette
