Book Club

On June 28 at 7:00 we will discuss the Indigo Girl by Natasha Boyd. This novel is historical fiction based on real life agriculturist, Eliza Lucas, who figured out how to grow and extract dye from indigo plants on her plantation in South Carolina, which eventually brought great wealth to the territory.

The July 26 selection is Wish You Were Here by Jodie Picoult. Set in the early months of the pandemic, this novel is about an ambitious young woman, Diana, who gets stranded on Isabela Island in the Galapagos Island by herself when the island goes on lockdown. Her boyfriend, who was supposed to be there with her is busy tending to Covid patients at a New York hospital.

The Japanese Lover by Isabel Allende is our August 23rd selection. This novel focuses on two women, Irina Brazil, a young woman with a dark past who has moved to work at a convalescent home, and Alma Belasco, a screen printer who is a resident of the home.

Zoom links will be sent a week prior to the meeting.

Recently passed meeting

Our Spring Celebration of Membership was a huge success! We announced our scholarship winners and our other chapter awards. Lorena Williams presented our Reflection. I asked her if it was okay to publish the text of her Reflection, and here it is:

Reflection presented by Lorena Williams, on the occasion of her 50th anniversary of membership in DKG, Gamma Gamma chapter
Annual Celebration of Membership May 5, 2022, Poplar Creek Country Club

President Beaudette, members and guests. Today's reflection is aimed at stimulating the personal and professional growth of our members and guests. I have selected introspections and guides from Bindu Desai. We've had similar career paths. She, in Bollywood, as an actress, and I, in Schaumburg, as an educator, who was fortunate enough to be invited to become a member of DKG 50 years ago. Bindu's life was filled with family responsibilities, as was mine.

Another reason to share reflections from her works is the deep respect she holds for sisterhood. "Women who understand how powerful they are, do not give in to envy over meaningless things. Instead, they fight to maintain the beautiful bond of sisterhood. These are the real women who know that we need each other's love and support to survive in this world.

Love is the essence of being a woman. We must be that light of love that seals the bond and unique beauty of our sisterhood. As a breath of fresh air, Bindu encourages us to love, cheer, and inspire each other. Additionally, she reminds us to accept criticism if it is constructive. Use it to head in a direction that will make you a better person. Encourage your goals, dreams, and your mission. Never forget to whisper words of encouragement to your sisters and to others. Surround yourself with healthy males and females who will help you pursue your mission.

My personal reflections: Every woman has the power to transform her world. Each of you has a story to tell, a lesson to teach, and wisdom to share. Life is a beautiful masterpiece bound together by your experiences. So, open up and share your story. Become an inspiration to others. You can make a difference, because you matter. You were created with purpose. Live your life with intention. Now, go out there and make a difference by being the difference.

Care Team News:

Please contact Glenda Klein-Mali (and Kris Beaudette) if you have any news for the Care Team. We also love to hear your good news and celebrations! Let us know what you would like to be shared with your Gamma Gamma sisters.

Many of our chapter sisters have health issues or other situations they are dealing with which prevent them from coming to meetings. If you haven't heard from a Gamma Gamma sister in a while, please take a moment to call or email her. We can all do our part to check on our members and support them when they need us most.

To all our Gamma Gamma sisters, don't forget to let us know if you need our support-

Kris' Corner

This is the last newsletter that I will be writing, as my term as Chapter President comes to an end on June 30, 2022. This has been an outstanding experience for me, and many of you have heard me say this several times. I have learned a lot during this time. I have gotten to know many of you through the work of this job.

I have learned a lot about DKG, which has been invaluable. I know that all of us are important to this organization, so please continue to participate in all that you can. I encourage you to "step out of your comfort zone" with this group, because that is where the magic happens. Reach out to a new person, volunteer for a new task, or accept a role that might be unfamiliar. Everyone is here to help you grow.

I welcome our new Chapter President, Rose Karner. She is ready and will do a fabulous job as Chapter President for the 2022-2024 biennium.

Our Executive Board members are truly the Dream Team. They know how to plan and get the job done, and that is what makes our chapter great. It has been my honor and privilege to work with all of them.

Have a great summer, and we will see you in the Fall.
